These ten simple sermons were delivered in various churches in Sri Lanka. They were inspired by writings of great preachers, including Henry Drummond (1851?1897), D. L. Moody (1837?1899), C. H. Spurgeon (1834?1892), Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906?1945), Stanley Jones (1884?1973), William Barclay (1907?1978), W. E. Sangster (1900?1960), D. T. Niles (1908?1970), and George E. Good (1915?1994). This will be a resource for preachers, teachers, and students, and a devotional book for anyone seeking spiritual nourishment. DIVThe place of music in different forms of work from the earliest hunting and planting to the contemporary office. /div Water for the thirsty, rest for the weary, and a friend for the lonely. Three books in one, bringing you closer to the Savior. In Come Thirsty, Max Lucado encourages you to visit the well and drink deeply, to receive Christ's work on the cross, the energy of his Spirit, and his lordship over your life, and his unending, unfailing love. Using the illustration of weary travelers in Traveling Light, Lucado invites us to release the burdens of our excess baggage that we were never intended to bear--with the Twenty-third Psalm as our guide. In Next Door Savior, master storyteller Max Lucado presents the life of Jesus Christ in stunning contrast, revealing the irresistible human qualities and the undeniably divine characteristics of Jesus. Lucado describes, as only he can, a Savior who is as approachable as a next-door neighbor, yet mighty enough to save humanity. "Four Portraits of Jesus is a Bible study guide based on the four distinctive portraits of Jesus in the four Gospels. Each chapter begins with a passage relating to a key theme for each particular Gospel and then addresses a series of questions designed to acquaint readers with important issues related to that Gospel and its audience. The all-in-one volume incorporates detailed lesson plans for the teacher or study leader, course reading material and worksheets for the participant, and biblical background information for both."--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. All Rights Reserved Sheds new light on Psalm 23 asking one to consider the baggage that is carried and the overwhelming need to release burdens to a God who is ready and willing to be everything to everyone. "Each chapter is a tantalizing and enriching Bible lesson all in itself. If you only read one chapter, God will use it to touch your life. Invigorating and stunning. Your life will never be the same." - Bill Wolsfeld, Wheaton College "Fascinating book filled with faith, hope, and love." - Linda Vaughn, First Lady of Racing "Such a gratifying spiritual work to inspire my soul! Very, very inspirational." - JD Sarantakos, Mindfreak "I found the reading very uplifting, with it setting me in a place of peace and tranquility. So much so, I had to read it again!" - Sandy Jackson, RN-BSN This insightful book offers a tantalizing fictional journey through the first thirty psalms in the Bible. Speaking Psalms is the first book of five where every one of its chapters is a biblical lesson that will leave you eagerly wanting more. Church-goers often hear the nonfiction side of scripture, and walk away from church confused due to the overload of high-tech words and doctrinal teaching. Speaking Psalms not only teaches scripture and Christian values, but illustrates them through light-hearted and entertaining Bible studies and short stories. About the Author: A Gulf War Veteran, Welby MD was raised in the Washington, D.C. area. Today, he teaches Bible studies and occasionally preaches sermons for his local church. This book is loaded with humor. Touching up your communication with humor may be just what you need to keep them awake. Ask yourself if they are being so polite in not disturbing your speech that it is an indication that they have gone to sleep. Improve your communication! Find the humor you need by checking the subject titles and the index. You might discover the sparkle you need! Much has been written about understanding one's calling and using acquired talents to fulfill one's purpose in life. In the Right Place, true short stories from paranormal to humorous, emphasizes that time and place are required ingredients to fulfill that purpose. #13; Anxiety... It might be the weight on your shoulders, the constant sense of worry by your side, or the cloud of dread hanging over your life. For many, anxiety is a powerful giant wanting to trap you in darkness and defeat. But there is freedom to be found from its grip. Knowing firsthand the realities of anxiety, pastor Louie Giglio shares both practical and spiritual ways to live in victory. With encouragement and hope, this book will equip you with the cross of Jesus as your strongest weapon against anxiety by: Understanding the root of your anxiety Quickly recognizing and addressing anxious thoughts Replacing fear and stress with hope and peace Anxiety can be debilitating, but Jesus has already defeated its stronghold. Find true rest in the Prince of Peace and break free from anxiety. A repertoire resource textbook for building children's choirs. Lifeline for Children's Choir Directors offers extensive repertoire lists as well as perceptive text from one of the foremost experts in the field of children's choir. A useful tool for school, community and church-based groups. The Lord asked Dale Price, "Do you love Me?" And Dale answered, "Yes, I love you." Then the Lord said, "Feed My sheep." Dale dedicated his life to keeping all of the Divine appointments that God made for him. The details of his story don't matter. Dale's times of trial only increased his faith; he embraced the Refiner's fire. - When the shadows do come, I want to be found holding His hand. - Walking by faith is truly where we learn that our trust in Christ goes way beyond salvation-it is a trust that places every moment, every day, every fear, and every cell in His infinite care. - As crazy as it may seem, I pray for the heat. Not that I desire a reversal of my present good reports. I just pray for the sense of complete dependency that comes when God turns on His Refiner's fire. Dale Price, co-founder and executive director of Canyonview Camp near Silverton, Oregon, taught Apologetics, Christian Counseling, and numerous Bible classes in Canyonview's Equestrian College and Bible College. He and his wife, Ruby, who were married in 1970, have two married sons and five grandsons. He retired in 1999 from the Army Reserve as a "Bird" Colonel. The last four years of his Army Reserve he served as an Emergency Planning Liaison Officer for Fifth US Army, planning for military response to terrorism or natural disasters. In addition to his ministry at Canyonview, Dale served as interim pastor of Silverton's First Baptist Church for 18 months, remaining active in Silverton's ministerial association until his death. He was past president of the Northwest Section of Christian Camping International, a frequent speaker at national and regional Christian Camp and Conference Association (CCCA) meetings, and a keynote speaker for Russia's CCCA. Emulating the format of Raising a Modern-Day Princess, authors Doreen Hanna and Karen Whiting seek to help parents and grandparents cultivate strong relationships and encourage the spiritual formation in their daughters using examples, Bible teaching on the fruit of the Spirit, and a variety of creative activities that are based on Galatians 5:22-23, the fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control). By implementing the ideas in this book, mothers (as well as fathers) will be equipped to understand and guide their daughters through each step of becoming His “princess.” This will include perceiving a daughter’s unique personality and gifts, refining her character through training and discipline, and modeling the attributes of a daughter of the King. This book is a follow-up to both Raising a Modern-Day Knight (by Robert Lewis) and Raising a Modern-Day Princess by Pam Farrel and Doreen Hanna. While the latter book is aimed at parents of girls ages 12 and up, this book focuses on building the Christian character of younger girls. Church members today are presented with countless opportunities to become intercessors. Visit any church, and note that the weekly prayer list offers opportunities for believers to lift up the body of Christ through prayer related to healing, job situations, financial problems, family issues, and a variety of other life events. Often, however, members have a desire to participate in prayer but are intimidated by the commitment and feel they need help in knowing how to pray. That's where experienced author and prayer leader Elaine Helms can help. In Prayer 101, Elaine offers support for local church prayer ministry leaders looking for a tool to train and equip the body of Christ in the area of prayer. Elaine's passion is to help new believers--as well as any

Christians who have a dry or nonexistent prayer life--grow in their knowledge of prayer. Readers will find simple principles they can put into action. These simple truths and opportunities for practice will help transform timid pray-ers into enthusiastic, active, praying Christians. Prayer 101 helps readers understand several prayer principles: priority and patterns of prayer; persistence in prayer; the difference between needs and wants; and how to pray for contentment, relationships, health and healing, and persons in positions of authority both within and outside the church. Readers will finish the book with an increased confidence in praying, both in private and in public. The One Year Alive Devotions for Students helps students focus on God's Word with powerful, true-to-life illustrations from daily life in both high school and college settings. In our media-saturated culture, in which students are bombarded with all types of distractions, The One Year Alive Devotions for Students will change how they think about God and their world. You wouldn't try to swim in a cornfield, would you? eat soup with a butter knife? study spelling words to get ready for a math test? Of course not! Would it make any more sense to ignore Jesus if you want to spend eternity with Him? No? Well, then, go ahead and spend some time with Jesus every day! Eric B. Hare, legendary storyteller and missionary, crammed this devotional full of stories that will help you get to know Jesus and have a happier life. You'll get to read through the best story of all (just a little at a time), and you'll even discover what Nehemiah, Christopher Columbus, and some Brazilian fishermen had in common (honest, it's in here!). With An Innocent in Ireland (1995), David McFadden began his eccentric journeys to the heart of some of the world's most unique island nations. Now McFadden rambles through the highs and lows of Cuba, home to cigars, Guantanamo, and of course Castro. The beautiful Caribbean landscape, along with Cuba's rich history, culture, and uncertain future, lend themselves to the quirky eye and wry witticisms of our innocent Canadian guide. Poking into the nation's many corners, McFadden offers a series of vignettes of the people, cities, villages, roads, and countryside of the island the author refers to as "the most famous little country in the world." Warm and colourful, An Innocent in Cuba is a musical, sensuous, flirtatious, joyful tribute to the Cuban spirit in all its incarnations. "As agronomy is the care of the soil and Dr. Arnold's life work, he shares with the reader his care for the soul as he travels through life in this insightful autobiography. The reader becomes a visitor in the lively dialog among family members and colleagues as Dr. Arnold reveals conflicts and resolutions in the world of faith and science. His subtle sense of humor adds a light touch to this amazing journey." - Anne S. Owens, President Samar Publishing Inc. "Wendell Arnold's beautifully written story of his life is so intriguing I couldn't put it down. When you read this book, you will discover the author is a man who dearly loves his family and friends. Furthermore, his completely committed faith in our Lord is a role model for all Christians." - Doris Hodges "Faith and Science. Can one person truly emote to these two different worlds? In this book, the autobiographer reveals his unwavering deep faith, while overcoming many challenges as he lived a professional life as a well respected and successful scientist. Read on and discover a true story that is deep in meaning, yet inter spaced with happy family memories and light diversions. The reader will have much to ponder long after the end of the book." - Jo Watkins "Science and religion walk hand in hand in Wendell Arnold's journey from a farm boy to the holder of a Doctorate in phytopathology and numerous patents in the environmental field. In From the Cotton Patch to Ph.D. we encounter a warm and readable story of a man's life defined by scientific inquiry and his relationship to Jesus Christ." - Bob Libby, Author and Episcopal Priest "Wendell Arnold's story of his Christian walk in life's journey is inspiring, heart-warming and a window into mid-century American life. Dr. Arnold's disarming and self-deprecating account of his experiences in family, youth, marriage, professional life and retirement paint a personal portrait of how to be aware of Christ's constant presence in our daily lives. Sit back and enjoy your travels with Wendell, knowing that you will find strength in his example." - Ruth D. Foss, Diocesan President, Daughters of the King. The title From the Cotton Patch to Ph.D. is by its very nature autobiographical. Wendell Arnold tells about being from a family of nine kids whose parents are share croppers. The experience in the cotton patch to dealing with corporate political challenges, environmental issues and legal avenues blended with raising a family paints the picture of a managed life. He shares his profound experience with God in his life as the adventures take more twists and turns than a rattlesnake chasing his prey. Dr. Arnold is a scientist with a BS and MS in Agronomy and a Ph.D. in Plant Sciences. He holds over ten patents on compound efficacy to control plant pathogens and is the author or co-author of over 35 scientific papers that have been published in refereed journals. Dr. Arnold skillfully tells his intriguing story of growing up picking cotton and becoming a world renowned scientist with faith in God. His story is a must read for those who think that religion, science and environmental improvement don't mix. Weary travelers. You've seen them -- everything they own crammed into their luggage. Staggering through terminals and hotel lobbies with overstuffed suitcases, trunks, duffels, and backpacks. Backs ache. Feet burn. Eyelids droop. We've all seen people like that. At times, we are people like that -- if not with our physical luggage, then at least with our spiritual load. We all lug loads we were never intended to carry. Fear. Worry. Discontent. No wonder we get so weary. We're worn out from carrying that excess baggage. Wouldn't it be nice to lose some of those bags? That's the invitation of Max Lucado. With the Twenty-third Psalm as our guide, let's release some of the burdens we were never intended to bear. Using these verses as a guide, Max Lucado walks us through a helpful inventory of our burdens. May God use this Psalm to remind you to release the burdens you were never meant to bear. This book contains an order of prayer for each day of the school year; it is organized for easy use, and is a great catechetical tool. Life looks positive as a young woman still in my late teens, when I fall madly in love with my Prince Charming, a wonderful man of good looks, money and power... until he attempts to kill me with the carving knife. Meeting my Perfect Valentine, becomes a major turning point in my life, directing me through important choices to be made and amazing experiences where I travel and begin to fulfil my childhood dreams. It is a story of growth, pushing boundaries, dealing with pain, re-learning basic truths, and actually beginning to love myself. Having always been told I was ugly well that I have eyes like a cod fish would you like to kiss a cod? Selling everything I own, and travelling as a missionary, each journey reveals inner truths, baring strengths and weaknesses, and taking me closer to my awaiting husband, the desire of my beating heart. But life continues to take turns causing my father at first to disown me, and push boundaries in my parents own minds of acceptance. There are times of incredible worthlessness and fountains of fruitfulness and joy. Lessons to be learned, and mountains to be climbed experiencing the mountain tops of life... but life is rarely lived on a mountain top, and the downhill climb can be treacherous leading you back into the valley of the shadows of death. Those days being single were some of the most fulfilling times of my life, a privilege to be the hand of love to those in need. Climaxing to the words I had longed to say all my life, and be asked the question that required my answer of I do, leads me to the imaginary place of all fairytales... to live Happily Ever After or not! Prayer is the master key that opens the door to the blessings of God. It opens the heart, opens possibilities that are impossible by natural means, and opens the door to God's presence. Through a particular and persistent kind of prayer, peace and power flow from God into our lives. The problem is that many people have an experience of prayer that is dull, unimaginative, and lacking power. Their prayer yields few answers and little peace. Jesus's disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray." Hearing Jesus pray, they knew that they needed to learn how to pray on a deeper level in order to see the miracles and transformation of persistent prayer. In the same way, we need to learn the conditions of prayer that prevail so that we can walk in faith, expect answers, and give thanks even before prayer is answered. In Prayer Power: 40 Days of Learning to Pray Like George Müller, author Brent Patrick McDougal invites you to take a forty-day journey to discover that kind of prayer. Each day features a teaching from Scripture and a story from the life of nineteenth-century pastor George Müller, one of the great heroes of our faith. Over a lifetime of ministry, Müller launched multiple orphanages that cared for more than 10,000 children. But not once did he ever ask for donations. Instead, he prayed as each need arose. Prayer Power teaches everyday people of faith how to pray with the faith of George Müller, expecting answers because our good God is waiting to meet and reward those who seek Him. We are created to be fruitful. A fruitful life, according to Jesus, is the present manifestation of the future kingdom of heaven. Until we discover how we can be fruitful, nothing will give us true satisfaction and fulfillment. In his famous Sermon on the Mount, Jesus revealed the secret to fruitful life and disclosed its path in his teaching of the Beatitudes. Few people realize that Jesus was using the Beatitudes to reveal to us the process of significant personal and social transformation that leads us to fruitfulness. In this book we are not only going to unwrap but also embody this top secret of life delivered to us by Jesus Christ. We will journey through the eight progressive steps of personal and social transformation and continue on an upward spiral of a fruitful life. Samuel M. Stone is the pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church of Paramus, New Jersey. He was born in China, raised in Burma, and received his Master of Divinity degree at the San Francisco Theological Seminary. Presents an anthology of the best travel writing published in the previous year, selected from magazines, newspapers, and web sites. We are at war! When our Lord and King prepares for battle, he first releases a loyal band of servants (prophets) who boldly declare his intentions. Objective observers agree that this world is headed in a very bad direction. The signs for an impending disaster are everywhere. Profiteers are capitalizing on this growing sense of danger, by manufacturing dire end-of-the-world predictions. These false prophecies swirl about as people struggle to make sense of the increasing insanity and violence. Presently, God is selecting and preparing his anointed prophets for a global assault. They will overturn the money-changers' tables in the compromising and lukewarm church as they announce the coming destruction of the wicked. Even now, Satan is sending a great multitude of his minions to every institution where he has a foothold, in order to undermine the truth and fill the minds of the Biblically uninformed with lies, fear and hatred. It will take a hero's courage to read The Prophets of God with an open mind and an open Bible. Taking a Pre-Wrath Rapture position, the arguments contained inside have the power to rock the Christian establishment to its core. If the message in this book becomes widely known, it will thoroughly upset those profiting from the status quo. But that is what the Spirit must do! What comes out of the prophet's mouth is a two-edged sword that judges each one hearing the message. Inside The Prophets of God, readers will have a valuable resource as they go forward to the end of this age and the return of Christ. Each page promotes wisdom that comes from God while exposing the deceit that originates in the hell of his defeated foe. Chapters, such as "The King's Enemy," "Counterfeits," "The Sword," "Captivity," "The Surprise Judgment," and "Restoration," will excite and challenge every Bible student, regardless of their knowledge level. Nothing is more powerful than an idea whose time has come. Absolutely nothing can stop it! What is contained in The Prophets of God will demonstrate again how "the pen is mightier than the sword." Why now? Why this book? It is because it is the season for war. The time for the great battle prophesied at Jesus' return will soon arrive. Before then, sides will be chosen; men and women will persuade their children and their friends as to whom they should believe. On the day of the Lord's salvation, those with a future and a hope will all have one thing in common: They recognized, heard and followed The Prophets of God. This collection of new essays is the first to study film depictions of the quest for the Holy Grail—the holy Christian relic of legend supposedly used by Jesus at the Last Supper. Scholars from a range of disciplines discuss American,

Australian and European films that offer fresh perspectives on this enduring myth of the Arthurian world and Western culture, including The Silver Chalice (1954), Monty Python and the Holy Grail (1975), Excalibur (1981), The Road Warrior (1981), Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade (1989), The Fisher King (1991), The Da Vinci Code (2006), The Waterboy (1998), and Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Undead (2009). Advent is a time of wonder and waiting - but that's not a passive thing. We need to walk into Advent with our eyes open. We walk through a world where wars are being waged and babies are being born. We are humbled by our inability to do much about what is wrong. But we do our best: to be kind, caring, to understand the meaning of mercy. We do our best to be even-handed, to act justly. Words from the prophet Micah inspired this book. But it also reflects the words of a later prophet, George Fox: 'Walk cheerfully over the world, answering that of God in everyone.' Join us on a cheerful, thoughtful, justice-seeking journey towards Bethlehem, a journey day by day through Advent. Of the millions of Elvis Fans around the globe, I would place Heart Shapre' among the top ten persons for her love, mystique and dedication to King Presley.

I wish her the best of luck in her new book endeavor. Capt. Bob Ferguson, Ret. Memphis Police Dept. Some things are meant to be, this writing is based on ELVIS THROUGH MY EYES; the facts remain. Here is your friend, and you will learn about the man. Would anyone who loves ELVIS toss his life away? Influential people like ELVIS are not forgotten no matter what. Seven lost childhood years of ELVIS' life is related by James Samuel Denson selected by Gladys Presley to help raise him. On stage beneath those costumes was a person who had struggles, FBI involvement and is a phenomenon. What was the price...the blood talks. This work was written with Priscilla and Lisa Marie in mind. To quote Elvis, My image is one thing and the human being is another...it's hard to live up to an image...Elvis gave possibly more than he had and his spirit still connects with all who love and understand him far beyond the emotionalism. The God in Elvis connects with the God in others. Don't miss knowing him plus the blessing this book brings as, if you shut the door here, you may be walking on Elvis' soul. As some desire only the showmanship, there is no need to say 'enjoy it' - you have that but we have the man - ELVIS. We were extremely fortunate to have had Elvis for so long. Yet today, his music is kept alive so beautifully by radio, TV, film and the gifted Tribute Artists world-wide; we are highly blessed with their artistry. Elvis was not finished by August 17, 1977 The human mind cannot fathom the amazing essence of God's love toward mankind. When one contemplates the sheer depth, height, and breadth of His love, it truly is a wonder. In Psalm 23: Wonders of God's Love, Stacey Donaldson details the way God uses the soul of Psalm 23 to undergird her while she endures difficulties in her second pregnancy that puzzle even the doctors. As Satan sows despair to douse her hopes for a healthy baby, the love of God covers and protects her vulnerability allowing her to find hope in His ability. In a still, small voice she hears, "Doctors will wonder, but this will be a wonder of God's love." Ushering her into a place of peace and rest to endure the test, this message also inspires this memoir, which will allow others to experience the wonders of God's love. Author and educator Stacey Donaldson has written professionally for more than ten years, initially as a broadcast journalist and currently as an English teacher. In search for God's purpose in her career, she left the newsroom and entered the classroom. With a master's degree in secondary education and National Board Certification, Donaldson uses her experience to motivate and prepare her students to write and operate in the real world. Ultimately, Donaldson desires for her work to offer hope and healing to those who are hurting. Stacey is married to Johnny V. Donaldson, and they are the proud parents of Camaryn and Cailyn. They reside in Clinton, Mississippi. Paul's letter to the Philippians provides a definition of the true Christian temperament that focuses, not so much on the essential elements of a holy character, but the finer qualities of those elements. There is a secret to such a life, says Simpson. It is "a single-hearted devotion to Jesus Christ. Not mere love, but devoted love. Not mere consecration, but entire consecration. Not just living for Christ, but living for Christ alone." This collection is dedicated to a distinguished scholar and writer who for a quarter of a century wrote consistently on African literature and the arts and was a major voice in Nigerian literary circles. Ezenwa-Ohaeto made a mark in contemporary Nigerian poetry by committing pidgin to written form and, by so doing, introducing different creative patterns. He also saw himself as a 'minstrel', as someone who wanted to read, express and enact his work before an audience. First and foremost, however, Ezenwa-Ohaeto was someone who 'un-masked' ideas and meanings hidden in the folds of literary works and made them available to an international academic public. With his outstanding work on Chinua Achebe, he influenced the reception of African literary biography. His networks and connections were extensive and wide-ranging, and they are partly reflected in the essays, creative writing and personal notes assembled in this volume. In their various modes and expressions, the contributions included here constitute a tribute to Ezenwa-Ohaeto's many talents and achievements. As an extension of Ezenwa-Ohaeto's legacy, they expand on various aspects of minstrelsy and the un/masking of texts in a Nigerian and broader African context. The book is divided into six sections. "In Memoriam" contains personal tributes by long-standing colleagues, mentors and friends. "Poetry and Fiction" collects the voices of three generations of Nigerian writing from the 1960s to the present day, followed by poetic and pictorial insights into the domestic and social life of the scholar and family man. Section Four comprises two interviews, while Sections Five and Six are devoted to critical evaluations of Ezenwa-Ohaeto's work and to contemporary perspectives on Nigerian literature respectively. Short story. Inspirational "Looking Back" is based on chastening/Rebuke. How God choose one irrespective of the persons ways that are not satisfactory to men. Psalm 75:7" it is God who judges: He brings one down and exalts another" looking back tells us more of Gods Mercy. Romans 9:15 all king James version. and how wisdom is accorded to the ones that He love through mercy. The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want ...' Travel the shepherd's path to the green pastures and cool, refreshing waters of Psalm 23.

As a shepherd, Phillip Keller shares his insights into the life and character of sheep---and of the Good Shepherd who loves and cares for them. Offered here in easy-to-read large print, this beloved classic will give new meaning to the ageless Shepherd Psalm, enriching your trust in and love for the Lord who watches closely over you. We all have challenges, sorrows, and troubles, but it's possible to turn any adverse situation around when you're teaming up with the Lord. In this guide, a career pastor and prophet explores some of the doubts, fears, and perplexities he has experienced throughout life—and reveals how he has relied on the power of the Holy Spirit to find answers, comfort, strength, and guidance. In GodStrong, he explains how you can use doubt to strengthen your faith, profit from life's traumatic experiences, and partner with God to build momentum and achieve your goals. You won't get anywhere in life by relying on a church-made, miracle-maniac "god" that loathes the self-dependent and rationally spiritual. By understanding that success is dependent on the powers of self-reliance rather than on naive expectations of divine miracles, you can discover how to be a true champion of God. Cherish the independence and freedom inherent in direct guidance from the creator, and then do the hard work that's necessary to achieve your objectives. Turn your pains into personal gains by being GodStrong. The Gift for All People is a celebration of God's gift of salvation wrapped in a collection of inspirational stories. These stories will help Christians comprehend and treasure the assurance of their salvation and will help non-Christians realize and embrace the gift of abundant, eternal life in Jesus Christ. The concluding story, written especially for this book, urges readers to give their lives to Jesus Christ and shows them how to do so. This book will provide Christians with a unique, warm, and attractive presentation of the gospel to give to non-Christian family or friends. More than anything, God wants you to be with Him. The God who designed your world, the God who placed you on the planet, simply wants you home with Him. And to bring you home, He offers you a gift...the gift of eternal salvation. My prayer is that through the pages of this book you'll see his gift like you've never seen it. If you've already accepted it, you'll thank Him again. And if you've never accepted it, I pray that you will. For it's the gift of a lifetime. A gift for all people. Imagine a hope-filled tour of the Bible with the most beloved
