For many high school graduates, college is a way to get ahead, but going to college is not the only way for young adults to succeed. Many people choose to enter the workforce after high school to start earning money and gaining experience right away. These motivated young workers can have rewarding jobs without ever having to earn a 4-year college degree. If you don't know that you want to—or can—go to college, and you are interested in hair, skin care, and makeup, a career as a cosmetologist may be right for you. Young people need only a high school diploma or equivalent to start work in cosmetology, and they can eventually earn more than $50,000 a year as a cosmetologist. In Cosmetology, you'll learn how to start a career in cosmetology and what you need to succeed in the field. Find out about the prospects for careers in cosmetology in the future, how much workers can make each year, and whether your path to success includes a career as a cosmetologist. Includes separately issued vols. for special sessions of 1967, 1971, and 1974. Describes 250 occupations which cover approximately 107 million jobs. Using survey results and contributions from 35 award-winning elementary school principals nationwide, this essential resource examines over 100 field-based practices recognized as the best for the elementary school principalship. Cosmetology offers many opportunities for people who like working with their hands and using their creativity to help others look their best. The field of cosmetology encompasses a number of occupations, including hairstylist, barber, nail technician, skin care specialist, and makeup artist. These personal appearance workers are trained in the art of cutting and styling hair, manicuring nails, performing skin treatments, applying makeup, or a combination of these. Readers are provided an overview of the field, including the skills and personal qualities needed for success, and the career training and licensing required to get started. Readers learn how to choose the right school or training program and how to forge a path to their desired career in beauty. Vibrant color photographs and sidebars add interest and excitement. Humans have been finding ways to beautify their bodies since the days of Ancient Egypt, and today there are more options than ever for how people can wear their hair, nails, and makeup. This compelling book takes a detailed look at the various cosmetology professions, including hairdressers, nail technicians, estheticians, and makeup artists, with detailed information about cosmetology school and other options for training. Featuring sidebars on bias in beauty school, a pop-up hair salon for the LGBTQ+ community, and how social media influencers are changing the beauty industry, this book offers a fascinating glimpse of a fast-changing profession. ebook version. Cosmetology and dermatology are often considered similar branches of medical science though both have different approaches and uses. Both these branches do overlap at the point of cosmetic surgery. Cosmetology refers to the practice of beautifying a person's appearance. It incorporates providing care and beauty treatments for nails, hair and skin. On the other hand, dermatology deals with treating diseases related to skin, hair or nails. This book will cover both of these topics and explain in detail their integrated applications. It is compiled in such a manner, that it will provide in-depth knowledge about the theory and practice of these fields. Those in search of information to further their knowledge will be greatly assisted by this book. It is a ripe text for cosmetologists, dermatologists, professional researchers and students associated with cosmetology and dermatology at various levels."
